

August 30, 2011

Welcome to Jennings County Youth Leadership! We are excited to begin another year and have many exciting and interesting activities and programs lined up for you.

You are a leader—an elite role that comes with awesome responsibility and immeasurable reward. A leader must be well organized and balance multiple priorities. We ask that you take a moment, right now, to ensure that the following tasks are completed without delay.

- Please send back the enclosed forms to the JCHS Guidance Office immediately. These forms include a JCYL permission form and Bradford Woods forms. Papers will always be turned in to Guidance.
- Add the JCYL schedule to your calendar. If you have a conflict, please speak with us without delay.
- Please communicate this schedule with your parents.
- Make sure all of your teachers are aware of your participation in this class and that you will be responsible for all makeup work.
- It is your responsibility to communicate on a regular basis with your teachers and parents.

September 13, 2011—Bradford Woods Please arrive at the High School at 6:45AM. Enclosed forms are required to participate. If we don't have your forms, you will not be allowed to board the bus. More info is in the Bradford Woods Memo included with this packet.

A few quick F.A.Q.s.....

Where do we meet each time? meet by the main office,.

When do we meet? The class schedule is enclosed , most dates meet by 8:20AM
